University of Northern Iowa

Teacher education remains the chief function of the University of Northern Iowa, but in recent years academic programs have been enlarged to offer degrees in non-teaching fields.

In subsequent years following 1967, when the Iowa General Assembly approved university status for UNI, non-teaching degrees added have included the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Technology and Bachelor of Music.

New construction is evident throughout the campus. A new physical education complex opened last year, as did the first phase of a 278-unit married student housing development. The initial stages of a large, modern education center are scheduled to open this fall.

UNI's prowess in teacher education has left its mark on the physical education department, which turns out per capita the largest number of coaches in the state. Evidence of this is apparent on page ten of this guide, which lists graduates of the UNI football program who are now in coaching.

Maintenance of a well-rounded intercollegiate athletic program is of primary interest to the UNI staff. The success of this endeavor is indicated by the fact that Panther teams have won the conference's all-sports trophy in two of the last three years.

The University retains membership in the National Collegiate Athletic Association, and is one of eight schools in the North Central Conference. A full round of 11 intercollegiate sports are sponsored by the conference, and have championship events. Other schools are Mankato State, Morningside, Augustana, South Dakota U., South Dakota State, North Dakota U. and North Dakota State.

Your Host at Northern Iowa

Rod Williamson

Rod Williamson succeeded Dave Westphal as UNI's Sports Information Director in June, two weeks after he graduated from Iowa State University.

Williamson, 22, had been a student assistant in the Iowa State sports information office for nearly two years. Prior to that he had edited the Iowa State Daily sports page for one year. Williamson was also a summer intern and campus correspondent for the Des Moines Register and the Waterloo Courier before moving to UNI.

Williamson won 11 letters in four sports as a prep at Parkersburg, Iowa. His wife, Phyllis, is a special education teacher in a Waterloo elementary school. They have no children.

Sheriff Nears 75th UNI Victory

Heading into his 13th year as head coach of UNI football, Stan Sheriff has found his stay at the Cedar Falls school marked by a steady addition of increasing responsibilities.

In the mid 1960's he helped organize the UNI Athletic Club, which this year is approaching the 400 membership mark. Sheriff has been both the main driving force and chief fund-raiser for the organization.

Two years ago he added the duties of athletic director, a position which last year forced him to deal with the increasing problem of athletic facilities on the UNI campus.

Still, Sheriff has somehow managed to build strong UNI football teams, as evidenced by last year's club that finished second in the North Central Conference. The Panthers' 4-5 overall record in 1971 put Sheriff's career record at 68-45-2, and just seven victories short of the 75 win mark. A good Stan Sheriff year could easily put him at that level.

After two years as head assistant under Bill Hammer in 1958 and 1959, Sheriff took over in 1960 and produced an unbeaten club in his first try. That club won the first of three consecutive conference titles. In all, Sheriff has coached four NCC title-winners, six first team Little All-Americans and 35 all-conference players. His record in the league is 46-19-1.

Sheriff played his college ball at Cal Poly (San Luis Obispo), where he was a three-time all-conference center and a Little All-American as a senior. He played in the 1953 East-West Game, and the Hula Bowl, later seeing three years of NFL action.

Sheriff, and his wife Jane, have three sons, Paul, Michael and Richard.

The Assistants

Don Erusha

Sheriff's number one assistant, Erusha is completing a decade of service with the Panthers this fall. In charge of both offensive and defensive lines, Erusha was extremely proud of the way UNI's defensive line personnel improved throughout the year last season. Erusha has consistently developed top-flight linemen (e.g. Mike Allen, who was all-conference last year), but none so accomplished as the two-way guard Ray Pedersen, who was a first team Little All-American in 1967. Erusha graduated from Coe College and coached in the high school ranks at West Union, West Branch, Mt. Clemens, Mich., and Cedar Rapids Washington. Prior to his arrival at UNI in 1963 he was on the Coe staff. Don and his wife Pat have one daughter, Kay, a junior at UNI this fall.

Dennis Remmert

The senior member of former UNI players on the Panther coaching staff has his work cut out for him this year. Remmert will be trying to duplicate last year's superb defensive effort, which was however hurt severely by the graduation of six starters. Remmert's chief responsibility is the defensive secondary, including both the linebackers and deep backs. He also coordinates the entire defensive team. During his playing days at UNI Remmert was a two-time all-conference selection, and was a second team Little All-American pick in 1959. He graduated in that year and after a short pro career, joined the Panthers as a graduate assistant. He coached one year at Fort Dodge Junior College. A native of Mason City, he and his wife Sandy have two young sons, Chad and Brad.

Dan Boals

Perhaps the most challenging job this year has been relegated to the newest member of the UNI staff—Dan Boals. It is his responsibility to develop a potent offense that last year could be described at best as inconsistent. And he has little experienced talent with which to work. Like Remmert, Boals was a standout football player at UNI, being named twice as the conference's most valuable back. In his final season (1962) he was named to the first Little All-American team as fullback. Boals still holds the single season scoring record and is second in career rushing and average gain. Prior to his arrival at UNI in 1971, Boals had a successful three-year coaching stint at Waterloo West, where he compiled a 21-5-1 record. Boals and his wife Carol have two sons, Shannon and Aaron, and a daughter, Alinda.

Elmer Kortemeyer

Working out of a newly remodeled office and training room at Men's Gym, Kortemeyer heads into year No.7 as Northern Iowa's head trainer. A former UNI student, Elmer completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Wyoming in 1957 and received his M.A. from the same school in 1962. In the interim he coached high school football and basketball in Wyoming. He and his wife Joy have two sons, Karl and Paul, and two daughters, Clare and Katherine.

Jim Rudd

Northern Iowa's first full-time athletic business manager is Jim Rudd, an enthusiastic graduate of UNI and the Stan Sheriff football program. His first major project was the organization of the season football ticket campaign, but he'll also give much-needed aid in such activities as the UNI Athletic Club. An all-conference defensive lineman in 1969, Rudd replaces J. D. Anderson, who has returned to full-time teaching and coaching. Jim and his wife Connie have no children.

Graduate Assistants

Dennis Kettner

Kettner returns to the UNI campus following two years of military service. A native of Waverly, Kettner will be working with offensive backs and receivers this fall. He had collegiate experience at both positions at UNI—he gained nearly 1,000 yards at fullback and led the team in rushing in 1968, and started at tight end a year later.

Doug Walter

Walter, too, is a service returnee, having put in a short stint with the National Guard. He'll be helping out line coach Don Erusha, and his special emphasis will be in the defensive line. That's where Walter attained prominence as a UNI player, being named to the all-conference defensive team in 1970, his final year. He was also awarded the Oil Can Award that year, which is UNI's top football honor.

1972 Outlook

Stan Sheriff has a tough time answering questions about his 1972 University of Northern Iowa football team. He is certain it will be better than last year's North Central Conference runner-ups. The question is, how much better?

"We hope to have a much stronger offense this fall," Sheriff says, "and while our defense may be a little weaker, there was a general feeling among our staff last year that inability to move the ball cost us a possible conference championship."

Sheriff, who enters his 13th year in what has been a highly successful career as UNI's head coach, bases his optimism on two factors—the spring installation of the Houston-veer offense and a flock of promising quarterbacks.

"We like the veer attack because it allows us to stay with our basic option offense, keep our receivers wide and take advantage of our fine passing potential. In past years we have run an offense that options the defensive end. The veer is similar except that we option both the tackle and end," Sheriff explained.

The list of quarterbacks includes junior Al Wichtendahl, last year's regular, who will be seriously challenged by passing whiz Ron Schooley, who has been ineligible since transferring to UNI from Indian Hills Junior College nearly two years ago. Ron is the younger brother of former Panther quarterback Phil, who holds many school passing records. Behind these two are Jim O'Donnell, who doubles as a flanker, John Piro, and promising freshmen Bill Salmon and Marc Humphrey.

The running back positions are not as clear since many were injured during spring practice. It is expected that rookie sophomore Dave Reed, brother of Mike—another ex-Panther—and a Missouri prep 100-yard dash champion, veteran Dave Hodam, Pat Batten, Scott Swartzendruber and Larry Martin will be the top rushers.

The offensive line has been bolstered by the return of letterman John Blessman. The 220-pound senior from Cedar Rapids elected to sit out the 1971 season after earning a letter in 1970. Lettermen Ken Rosenkrans and Tom Jones are also back.

The defense may be weaker, as Sheriff says, after losing Mike Allen and Bob Lee via graduation. But don't go looking for a weak sister because the unit that dished out four shutouts in 1971 is still going to be tough.

It is headed by All-NCC safety Mike Woodley and 225-pound tackle Dick Blau, who received mention in all-league honors. Both are just juniors and Panther coaches believe both will someday rank with the school's all-time best.

Woodley is not big, he's not particularly fast but he has the uncanny knack of being at the right place at the right time. He is also the team's "holler guy." Blau is rugged and mobile and had an outstanding spring practice.

Blau has more than adequate help in the line—the Panther stronghold. There is nose guard Lynn Stickfort and tackle Nelson White for starters. Both are lettermen and not far behind Blau by staff evaluation. Depth is also comforting here.

There are several other Panthers worthy of mention. One is cornerback Walt Fieseler, a former junior college All-American at Ellsworth, who is back for his final collegiate season. Fieseler won mention for all-league honors a year ago and the coaches believe he will be among the league's best again this season.

Finally there is Mike Butler, the little man with the booming foot. Butler will be out to win his third league punting title in his four seasons of play.

The Panthers will be tackling an ambitious schedule. Aside from the always tough North Central Conference, which Sheriff says "will be better as a whole than anytime in my 13 years," they also meet rugged Illinois State, Drake and Wisconsin State.

"We could be a helluva lot better than last year and still have some trouble," Sheriff says realistically. "We have a strong schedule and tough league but we're not afraid to take the field against any one of them. We're ready to play."

Where Are They Now?

Graduates of the Stan Sheriff football program have indeed gone on to a variety of careers. However, no profession has received more support from Stan than the coaching profession. In fact, one of Sheriff's proudest accomplishments in his 12 years as head coach has been his continuing contribution to the high school and college coaching ranks. The list below includes those men who participated in the UNI football program since Sheriff's arrival, who earned their degrees at UNI, and who then went into coaching.

Player Profiles

1972 Captains

Roling-Fieseler-White-Rosenkrans-Woodley

28—JERRY ROLING, DE, 5-11, 195, Sr., Eldora, Ia.

A jack of all trades, Roling has moved himself to defense for his senior year. Started spring drills at strong safety, then moved to defensive end in final three days, and looked especially good at that spot in final scrimmage. Panther defense needs quickness and tenacity at defensive end, and that fits Roling perfectly. Led team in rushing last year with 388 yards, more than triple that of No. 2 man. Also ranked third in pass receptions with 10 for 85 yards. A great competitor, who rarely takes a back seat to the action, Roling could give UNI an unexpected boost in '72.

40—WALT FIESELER, CB, 6-0, 170, Sr., Fort Dodge, Ia.

One of the top pass defenders in the league, Fieseler should challenge for all-league honors at his position this year. Came by way of Fort Dodge Jr. College, where he was accorded All-American recognition. Made honorable mention all-conference last year in first season. His defense against the running game improved steadily last year to go with an already strong pass defense. Teamed with Mike Woodley on kickoff and punt returns, ranking second behind Woodley in each category last year. Grabbed two pass interceptions to rank third in that department. His experience will be a much-needed aid for young UNI linebackers and deep secondary.

UNI line coach Don Erusha doesn't hold back the praise when speaking of this Waterloo Columbus graduate. White has been a two-year starter at defensive tackle, and coaches are comparing his play to that of former all-conference tackle Doug Walter, now a graduate assistant with the Panthers. His forte is his overpowering size and ability to dominate his opponent. Teams with Dick Blau to form what could well be the top defensive tackle tandem in the league.

55—KEN ROSENKRANS, OG, 6-1, 215, Sr., Waterloo, Ia.

Panther coaches are looking for this former Waterloo East player to break loose and achieve the stardom that was forecast for him three years ago. Rosenkrans was a first team all-state center at East, but has not played that position in college. Rather he has been used at a variety of spots, including offensive tackle and guard and defensive end. After getting a slow start last year when he missed part of pre-season drills because of military commitment, Rosenkrans came on to anchor the offensive right guard position.

The Panthers' only returning all-conference player from last year, Woodley is the field general for UNI's strong defense. Was one of only two players in the league last year to make all-conference as sophomores. Led the team in punt returns, kickoff returns, and tied for interceptions at four. Has been a starter at free safety since the fourth game of his freshman year. Probably the fiercest competitor on the team, Woodley is pound-for-pound one of the toughest football players anywhere. Like Rosenkrans, has a great football tradition, having played for East Waterloo.

Returning Lettermen

13—DAVE HODAM, TB, 6-1, 195, Jr., Des Moines, Ia.

Gets another shot at his junior year after being hurt in '71 season opener. After several weeks of question, injury was finally diagnosed as a fractured leg, which put him out for the year. Was team's No. 3 rusher as a sophomore. Could become the experienced leader in an otherwise youthful offensive backfield.

14—AL WICHTENDAHL, QB, 6-1, 185, Jr., Cherokee, Ia.

The Panthers' starting quarterback for a year-and-a-half, Wichtendahl will once again have to battle a number of challengers for the job. Last year passed for 66 completions, 774 yards and 5 touchdowns. Had a 38 per cent completion ratio. Allowed only 8 interceptions last year after throwing 17 during the last five games of his freshman year.

17—MIKE BUTLER, FL-P, 5-8, 160, Sr., Des Moines, Ia.

The diminutive Butler will try to regain the league's punting title this fall, after winning it his freshman and sophomore years. Strong winds in at least half of UNI's games last season cut Butler's average to 35.5, as compared to the previous years 39-plus. His greatest asset is the ability to hang the ball in the air.

32—FRANK METZGER, LB, 5-11, 205, Jr., Des Moines, Ia.

Another product of Bill Hodam (Dave's dad) at Hoover High in Des Moines, Metzger is a returning starter at the linebacking spot. Lack of size is little drawback for this fierce competitor. Is counted on by defensive coach Dennis Remmert to anchor what is generally an inexperienced group of linebackers.

45—JERRY WARD, CB, 5-11, 175, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Panther coaches expect this Cedar Falls native to give a solid, consistent performance in '72. Has good speed to defend against the pass, but also rates above average on turning in the wide running play. Teams with Fieseler to provide Panthers with strong pair of corner backs.

24—BRUCE DINNEBIER, SE, 6-1, 195, Sr., Waterloo, Ia.

Dinnebier, a top two-sport athlete, missed spring ball because of participation in baseball, where he led the team in home runs and was named to the all-conference team. Was tried at running back last year, but injury forced him out mid-way through season. Will go back to split end, where good speed and size should make him to top pass receiving threat.

13—Hodam

14—Wichtendahl

17—Butler

24—Dinnebier

32—Metzger

45—Ward

48—Converse

50—Lounsberry

48—NELSON CONVERSE, SS, 5-10, 180, Jr., Sumner, Ia.

Played last year behind the team's "Oil Can Award" winner Karl Krumm, and is now expected to take charge of the strong safety position. Has gradually and steadily made the transition from the line, where he was a first team all-stater, to defensive backfield position. A strong season by this rugged Sumner native could give UNI perhaps the finest defensive backfield in the league.

61—JOHN BLESSMAN, OG, 6-2, 220, Sr., Cedar Rapids, Ia.

Sat out the 1971 season after starting at right guard for the Panthers in '70. His return to the team is extremely important, in that it gives line coach Don Erusha another experienced hand in a relatively young offensive line. Erusha called Blessman one of UNI's top linemen in spring drills.

50—STEVE LOUNSBERRY, C, 6-3, 215, Jr., McCallsburg, Ia.

Started the entire year at center last season, although it was his first year at that position. The year of experience should result in noticeable improvement in Lounsberry's play this fall. Has the size and temperament to become one of the league's outstanding centers.

62—DENNIS HARMS, OG, 6-2, 220, So., Ackley, Ia.

Almost identical in size to Blessman, Harms should push the senior hard for a starting job. Was one of three freshmen to earn letters a year ago among talented yearling crew. Saw more action at guard as season progressed, indicating that more improvement may be on the way for this fine athlete.

61—Blessman

62—Harms

70—Frisk

73—Jones

74—Stickfort

87—Brooks

90—Blau

91—Moorhouse

72—CHARLES FRISK, OT, 6-4, 220, So., Ackley, Ia.

Called one of the Panthers' top recruiting prizes a year ago, Frisk is well on his way to stardom at UNI. Assumed starting guard role which he kept all year long, and this spring was moved out to tackle. Needs only to learn finer points of the game to achieve greatness. Also competes in wrestling.

73—TOM JONES, OT, 6-3, 230, Sr., Marengo, Ia.

A newcomer to the UNI program last year after transferring from Western Illinois, Jones gained a starting spot first at guard, and then tackle, and kept it all year. Has the best size of anyone in the offensive line. Will be a key to the success of the Panthers' veer-option running game.

74—LYNN STICKFORT, MG, 6-1, 230, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Received all-conference honorable mention last year at middle guard, despite missing part of season with badly sprained ankle. A key man in UNI's angle defense, Stickfort is one of team's top competitors. Became a Panther by way of Ellsworth Jr. College, where he starred in football. Also snaps ball on punts and placements.

87—MIKE BROOKS, DE, 6-1, 190, Sr., Ames, Ia.

One of the most enthusiastic players on the team, Brooks is positioned perfectly. Will give the Panthers the kind of spectacular play which last year's defense became noted for. Plays the game with wreckless abandon, but still has the experience to do the job well in his first year as a starter.

90—DICK BLAU, DT, 6-4, 225, Jr., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Is quickly becoming one of the top defensive linemen in recent UNI history. A native of Cedar Falls, Blau played outstanding ball for Pat Mitchell, a UNI grad. Was named all-conference honorable mention last year as a sophomore. Line coach Erusha considers the potential for this rugged youngster unlimited. Love for the game is possibly his greatest strength.

91—TOM MOORHOUSE, DE, 6-0, 190, Jr., Glidden, Ia.

Was considered best second-teamer on squad as middle guard, but moved to bolster defensive end spot in spring. Should see lots of action.

Top Returnees

12—RON SCHOOLEY, QB, 5-11, 180, Jr., Wayland, Ia.

Ineligible for nearly two years after transferring from Indian Hills J.C. Rated as outstanding passer, average runner and good leader. Must work on the option play. Brother of ex-Panther QB Phil and freshman receiver Dave.

15—JOHN PIRO, QB, 5-11, 170, So., Des Moines, Ia.

Seems to be improving quickly with installation of veer offense, ran it well in spring. Came to UNI with passing reputation but has shown he can also run.

16—JIM O'DONNELL, QB-FL, 6-2, 185, So., New Hampton, Ia.

Outstanding running quarterback, good leader and quick feet. Can also be used as wide receiver. Was good prep cager at New Hampton.

21—LARRY MARTIN, TB, 5-1, 174, So. Waterloo, Ia.

Not physical but very deceptive and runs well. Coaches say he did best job of all backs in spring. Prep star at Waterloo West.

25—DAVE REED, TB, 5-11, 200, So., Kansas City.

Could be outstanding athlete, has all the physical equipment. Coaches feel if anyone can break Randy Schultz's rushing marks it may be him. Was Missouri state 60 and 100-yard dash champion as prep at Southeast High School. Destined for greatness. Brother Mike was Panther. Wasn't eligible as freshman.

27—PAT BATTEN, TB, 6-1, 195, So., Council Bluffs, Ia.

Has been plagued with injuries most of his UNI career, latest being severe hamstring pull in spring. Good potential but must overcome ailments. Played at Lincoln High School.

21—Martin

25—Reed

16—O'Donnell

27—Batten

29—Veldhuizen

34—Donovan

29—JIM VELDHIJZEN, FB, 6-1, 185, So., Lynnville, Ia.

A walk-on who has earned the respect of his coaches and teammates. Called a strong runner. Expected to play before graduation.

34—SCOTT DONOVAN, LB, 5-11, 200, So., Spirit Lake, Ia.

Moved to linebacker in spring and shows potential there. Excellent speed, size and strength. Could push for starting job when he learns position.

38—SCOTT SWARTZENDRUBER, FB, 6-3, 200, So., Washington, Ia.

Played as a freshman but broke leg against South Dakota and has had recovery trouble. Strong runner with adequate speed.

39—STEVE BLANKENBERG, LB, 6-0, 215, So., Clinton, Ia.

Has impressive strength. Was the top linebacker in the Mississippi Valley prep league. Lacks some speed but has improved with added knowledge.

44—LARRY NORMAN, SS, 6-0, 190, So., Winthrop.

Was an offensive back as a freshman. Injured in spring and moved to strong safety. Coaches say he has future there. Prepped at East Buchanan.

47—BRYCE DAHM, FS, 6-0, 175, So., Pella, Ia.

Strong back-up man for Woodley. A walk-on who has impressed staff with agility and ability to read the keys from the position.

38—Swartzendruber

39—Blankenberg

44—Norman

47—Dahm

57—Berg

89—Blau

81—Alexander

83—Norgrant

57—MIKE BERG, LB, 6-0, 210, Sr., Claremont, Minn.

Looked sharp in early spring drills before tapering off near conclusion. Being considered as replacement for departed Bob Lee. Physically tough performer.

83—WARREN NORGRANT, TE, 6-3, 215, Sr., Lakefield, Minn.

Came as wide receiver from Rochester (Minn.) JC but moved to tight end. Best hands on team and probably will be regular.

66—DAVE SKIBSTED, OT, 6-3, 215, So., Storm Lake, Ia.

Saw limited playing time as a freshman. Coaches say as he matures and gains some strength he will help team.

85—DAVE JOHNSON, TE, 6-0, 225, So., Sioux Center, Ia.

Moved from guard to tight end behind Norgrant and should be dependable reserve. Was a fullback as prep.

77—GARY MEYERS, OT, 6-3, 225, So., Waterloo, Ia.

Very similar to Skibsted. Coaches call this Waterloo West product promising but needs time.

88—DAVE BRIGHT, TE, 6-4, 220, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia.

An occasional starter a year ago. Bothered by injuries and not out for spring drills. Must work hard to prove himself to coaches.

81—GARY ALEXANDER, SE, 5-11, 170, So., Waterloo, Ia.

A track man who came out for spring ball. Excellent speed, average hands. Could be big help when he learns wide receiver position. Prepped at Waterloo East.

89—DON BLAU, SE, 6-0, 185, Sr., Cedar Falls, Ia.

Has good savvy, average speed and can catch ball in a crowd. Brother of Dick. Prepped at Northern University High.

95—RANDY OMVIG, DT, 6-4, 230, So., Eagle Grove, Ia.

Welcome addition to team. Was league wrestling champ at 190 pounds in 1970, weight program has him to heavyweight. Hasn't played football since sophomore year as prep but adapted well and should come on strong with time.

96—ED BROWN, DT, 6-2, 220, So., Washington, Ia.

Has size and quickness to someday be among league's best. Played some as freshman and should improve playing behind Blau and White.

97—TOM SMITH, MG, 6-1, 185, So., Columbus Junction, Ia.

Moved from defensive end to nose guard behind Stickfort. Likes position and coaches say he's well suited there.

Top Newcomers

It is always difficult, if not impossible, for coaches to evaluate freshmen. However, the following appear to be headed toward top collegiate careers: BILL SALMON, an all-state quarterback at Cedar Falls who teamed with PAUL JAMES, also UNI bound and an all-stater, during an outstanding prep career. JOHN ALDRICH of N.U. High in Cedar Falls completes this talented local trio. Aldrich was a prep quarterback.

Others are DOUG CONKLIN, top rusher in the Quad Cities Metro Conference, RON DODD, former Ackley star, FRANK COPPOLA, a Californian recruited by former Panther George Asleson, DAVE SCHOOLEY, brother of Ron and WACO of Olds all-stater, and MARC HUMPHREY, Pella quarterback.

Top junior college transfers are SCOTT SICKLES from Janesville and Ellsworth J.C., DAVE LIETTE, Waldorf J.C. all-league pick and GREG MORRIS, Normandale J.C., who is small and quick.

Young Pointers Seek 'return to respectability'

It's been a long three years for Stevens Point Coach Pat O'Halloran, who has been charged with the awesome task of trying to get the Pointer football program back on its feet.

O'Halloran, who in his 20-year coaching career has not been used to losing, has a three-year mark of 3-26-1, including a disappointing 0-10 record a year ago.

However, victories in the Wisconsin State University Conference do not come easy, and O'Halloran is hopeful that his patience will be rewarded this year.

One of the most optimistic aspects of the pre-season football look at Stevens Point is that the Pointers are returning a whopping 31 lettermen, losing only 8 seniors off last year's club. O'Halloran and staff are also encouraged by the fact that the Pointers were in almost every game they played last year, including a 7-6 defeat to River Falls.

Potent Redbirds Plan Air Attack

Rookie Head Coach Gerry Hart inherits a flock of lettermen and lots of talent from last season's 6-5 club. As a result, the 5 year Redbird backfield coach expects to see considerable improvement in 1972.

No less than 32 lettermen return and all but six have started at least one game in '71. The offense promises to be potent.

Prep All-American quarterback Eric Scott joins last year's regulars. Steve Mardis and Steve Hagenbruch, and Missouri transfer John Bunch gives Hart four capable signal callers. The emphasis will be on passing but 2-year rushing leader Ron Bell is also back to give the attack balance. So is fullback Bruce Elliot.

The defense also looks good with the Redbird's M.V.P. of 1971, linebacker Larry Lokanc, and 265-pound tackle Paul Carther as the anchors.

This will be the initial gridiron meeting between the two schools.

Indians Finally Get NCC Title Shot

1972 has been a long-awaited year for Mankato State's football staff and players, and indications are the Indians are both willing and able to cash in on their first competition in the North Central Conference.

And MSC's success with league competition last year should give them enough confidence to make a run for the title the first time out. The Indians were 3-1 against NCC teams last year, and that record included a 13-10 win over eventual league winner North Dakota U.

Mankato has been competing in league competition in all sports but football for the last two years. Scheduling problems required that the school wait until '72 to make the NCC gridiron scene.

Former University of Wisconsin coach John Coatta begins his third year at the Minnesota school with a 14-5-1 record, including a 7-3 mark last year.

A total of 37 lettermen are on hand, and they'll bring experience at almost every position. An interesting sidelight to the Sept. 23 meeting between UNI and MSC is that both schools are using the Houston veer-option offense.

That date will also mark the first meeting of the schools since 1964, when UNI won a 36-0 decision.

Injuries Hold Key to '72 Coyote Success

If ever there was a deceiving record, it was South Dakota U.'s 3-7 mark for the 1972 football season. The Coyotes had one of the toughest schedules in the nation among college division schools, starting out against Montana, Wyoming, Idaho State, and then opening the conference season against North Dakota State.

In addition, USD had a 35-6 win over Morningside wiped out when the school was forced to forfeit for using an ineligible player.

Coach Joe Salem's crew was substantially set back by an abundance of injuries during spring drills, especially in the offense. How well the hurt Coyotes mend over the summer will be of prime importance to USD's season.

The Coyotes will not lack for outstanding players, the likes of Little All-American candidate John Sanders, a defensive backfield ace. Other top players include quarterback Tom Engleman and defensive guard John Divine.

Coach Erhardt

Bison "Comeback" Attempt After 7-2 Year

The pre-season book on North Dakota State in 1971 was explicit. The Bison coaching staff did not hesitate in predicting an eighth straight North Central Conference title, and possibly the best NDSU team ever.

However, key injuries, and perhaps the law of averages, took their toll and the legendary Bison took their fall. If, that is, you can consider a 7-2 record a fall.

At any rate, Ron Erhardt and crew lost to rival North Dakota U., then later lost to lightly-regarded South Dakota State, and wound up with a second place conference finish and a tie with the Panthers.

So, for the first time since 1963, North Dakota State will be trying to bounce back from a disappointing year. But not unlike recent years, the prospects look good.

Coach Wallace

Key Personnel Gone, Redmond, Heston Return

After consecutive 7-4 seasons, Drake head coach Jack Wallace is looking for the key that will turn recent strong seasons into outstanding ones. It's Drake's second year in the Missouri Valley, and the Bulldogs certainly must be among the contenders.

Wallace has backfield stars Dennis Redmond, a pro-type passer, and Jerry Heston, a do-everything runner, along with a strong defense anchored by defensive tackle Mike Samples.

There are, however, considerable losses with which to contend. Drake lost almost its entire offensive line, plus key players scattered among the defense.

One area in which the Bulldogs must improve is making the most of their scoring chances. Not unaccustomed to piling up 400-plus yards a game, most by the airways. Drake has had the tendency in recent years to throw away too many scoring opportunities.

But, as usual, the explosive offense will be there, especially with Redmond throwing to returning receivers like Doug Winslow, Rex Perry, Slade Willis and Heston.

Special Day—Homecoming

Defense Returns Intact, Chiefs Get JC Aid

Mike Junck, Dave Bigler, Dan McClannahan and most of the remainder of Morningside's potent offense is gone, leaving one giant headache for Chiefs head coach Dewey Halford, the veteran of North Central Conference football coaches.

Bigler, a two-time all-conference selection and last year's most valuable back, and Junck, when he was healthy, made for an explosive offense. To replace them Halford recruited heavily in the junior colleges, so immediate relief could be on the way.

Defensively, the Chiefs appear strong. Except for several lapses last year the Morningside defense played well enough to win, and no less than eight starters return from that crew.

Once again Morningside is the Panthers' Homecoming opponent, and UNI will again try to correct an ironic situation which has ruined the two schools' homecomings for the last five years. The Panthers and Chiefs traditionally play at each other's homecoming games, and not since 1966 (when UNI won 2-0) has the home team won.

Signs Indicate Sioux Could Do It Again

No tears were shed in Grand Forks on the evening of Oct. 16 last year. For in the afternoon the University of North Dakota had ended North Dakota State's 27-game conference win streak, and inevitably prevented the Bison from taking an eighth straight NCC title.

Can Jerry Olson's Sioux do it again?

Early indications are UND is quite capable of taking a second straight league championship. But the Sioux's loss of top personnel cannot be overlooked. Gone are all-everything linebacker Jim LeClair and defensive Dan Martinsen, along with defensive end Jerry Skogmo and offensive interior linemen Terry Kremer and John Gist. All of the above were all-conference picks.

However, the Sioux have top returnees in defensive linemen Doug Schindler and Frank Landy and offensive center Bill Blake.

Perhaps the strongest UND is what appears to be a powerful ground game, led by running backs Mike Deutsch, Mark Bellmore, Mark Walker and Bob Helman.

Coach Gregory

UNI Grad Gregory Seeks to Build Jacks Program

1961 University of Northern Iowa graduate John Gregory becomes the third new coach in four years to take a crack at upgrading South Dakota State University's football fortunes.

The task will not be an easy one, especially considering that SDSU grid teams have gone 8-22 in the last three years, and that no Jackrabbit squad has had a winning season in ten years.

Nevertheless, Gregory is optimistic, primarily because 23 lettermen are returning, and they are divided well among offensive and defensive starting positions.

The Jacks must select a new quarterback between sophomore Dave Kaufman and former East Waterloo player John Tovar. If either one develops, Gregory could have a strong offense on his hands, with veterans like Les Tuma, Jim Decker and Mike Doty returning in the backfield.

Vikings Seek Comeback After Winless NCC Year

Augustana enjoyed its best league finish since 1962 two years ago, then dropped last year to a 0-7 North Central Conference record.

A sizeable total of 27 lettermen return to give coach Ralph Starenko the experience he needs for improvement in 1972. Included in that group is junior running back Terry Nutter, who was one of just two sophomores to be named to the all-conference team a year ago. UNI's Mike Woodley was the other.

An important battle is shaping up at quarterback, where sophomores Ernie Tweet and Dave Zelinsky are competing for the starting job. The two went at it a year ago, and Starenko believes whoever wins the job, Augie will be set at quarterback for the next three years.

It should be noted that the Vikings' winless conference campaign a year ago included one-point losses to both South Dakota State and South Dakota U.
